Cass County Limits Public Access to Buildings
Original Press Release Date: March 17, 2020
UPDATED: May 5, 2020

Effective Wednesday, March 18, 2020, Cass County will not be allowing public entry to county buildings through at least May 19, 2020. Courtrooms and court proceedings shall remain open to the public. Non-essential visits to the courthouse are discouraged.

Cass County remains open to serving the public and will now do so through telephone, e-mail, US mail, and on-line services available through our website: www.co.cass.mn.us

County Board Chairman Neal Gaalswyk and Sheriff Tom Burch will continue to work together to provide information to the public consistent with our Emergency Operations and Continuity of Operation Plans.

Additional details on how the County will monitor courtroom access will be provided on the Cass County Website.

Below are contact numbers if you need to contact a specific Department for assistance.
